Member Advantage™ Discount Program

Idealliance advocates for its members by negotiating special offers and incentive programs from some of our industry's top equipment and technology providers, made available exclusively to members through the Idealliance Member Advantage™ Discount Program (MADP).

View the discounts associated with the Member Advantage Discount Program at idealliance.org/advantage. Please contact Dean D'Ambrosi at (703) 837-1064 or ddambrosi@idealliance.org to get more information on any affinity program, or to offer suggestions for additional program participants.

DIRECT MEMBERSHIP ROI

MADP discount affinity programs with highly respected suppliers help members realize significant savings on a wide range of business products and services, ranging from insurance to supplies. In many cases, members are already using some of the suppliers participating in our discount programs, so they can put these discounts to work for them immediately. The generous discounts available through this program also enable members to try new suppliers with less risk. Year after year, members save thousands of dollars making yet another excellent return on their membership investment. The following companies offer discounts to Idealliance members through the Member Advantage™ Discount Program:

- AccuZIP
